Review: Women's 10m Synchro Platform

2017.07.16. 20:48 CET

Far Eastern podium in the 10m Synchro Platform final

- China has now won this event at all nine World Championships since Ukraine won in 1998.
- Ren Qian (CHN) is the first to win multiple gold medals at the 2017 World Championships. She won gold in the 10m Platform Synchro Mixed event, as well.
- Si Yajie (CHN) won her third gold medal in diving and in three platform events at three World Championships - 10m Platform Women in 2013, 10m Platform Synchro Mixed in 2015 and 10m Platform Synchro Women in 2017.
- DPR Korea took silver in this event. It is the country's first silver medal in diving, after it had won one gold and one bronze medal.
- Malaysia won its fourth medal in diving, all bronze, and its third in 10m Platform Synchro Women after 2009 and 2013.
- Pandelesa Pamg contributed to all four medals for Malaysia - three in 10m Platform Synchro Women and one in 10m Platform Women (2015).
