Only a few tickets left

2017.07.16. 16:17 CET

There is a great interest in the open water swimming competition in Balatonfüred. After the first day of the Championships, Sunday tickets were also sold out, unfortunately a number of visitors couldn't enter in the end. There are no tickets for Tuesday, so those intending to watch the competition from the tribunes shall be really fast, since there are only a few tickets left.
