Ideal weather conditions on Sunday

2017.07.15. 16:44 CET

According to forecasts, weather conditions on Sunday will be similar to those on Saturday at women's 10k race. According to Szabolcs Fodor Race Director wind on the first day of the competition was not as high as expected. No stronger than 20 km/h wind is forecast for Sunday. The temperature of Lake Balaton is slightly increasing yet the 24-degree Celsius water temperature is still considered ideal.
